

Ticketing Terms & Condition | HP24-TOUR

These Terms and Conditions (“Terms”) govern all tickets (“Tickets”) purchased to attend the Spilt Milk House Party 2024 Festivals in Perth, Newcastle and the Gold Coast (each an “Event”). Before proceeding with a purchase, the prospective purchaser of a Ticket to an Event must carefully read these Terms, and, if unsure as to their meaning and application, seek legal advice.

By purchasing a Ticket to an Event, the purchaser agrees with these Terms and becomes a ticket holder (“you” or “Ticket Holder”). The Terms will be printed in an abbreviated form on the Tickets and in the case of any conflict between these Terms and the abbreviated form, these Terms will prevail.

Kicks Entertainment Events Pty Ltd ABN 58 155 382 326 (the “Promoter”) is the promoter of the Events. The Promoter and Official Ticketing Partners are collectively referred to as “the Sellers”. The Sellers may vary these Terms from time to time in their discretion, subject to law.

The following contains essential information for you to be aware of before making a purchase to an Event. Reading this may save you disappointment in the future. By purchasing a ticket to any Event, you agree to these Terms.

Conditions of Entry as set out below form part of these Terms and apply to any ticket purchased. Tickets are only valid if purchased from the Official Ticketing Partner.

Tickets may only be purchased by persons aged 18 years or over. All prices quoted for tickets are in Australian dollars and include GST. The Official Ticketing Partner will provide a tax invoice in relation to each Ticket purchase. Prices are subject to change without notice. A one-off service fee is charged by the Official Ticketing Partner on all purchases on a per-ticket basis. Each Ticket Holder warrants that they have the authority to make payment for a ticket and that they own or hold or have the express permission of the owner/holder of a credit card or other payment facility used to purchase the ticket.

The Promoter reserves the right to enforce ticket purchase limits published from time to time at the point of sale or resale and to cancel any Tickets obtained above said limits by any one customer.

Your entry to any venue at which the Events are conducted (the “Venues”) and attendance at an Event is subject to these Terms. Certain sections of these Terms may or may not apply to you depending on the nature of entry and/or participation in an Event, however different sections of these conditions may and can apply to you concurrently, or intermittently if the nature of your participation in an Event changes. Likewise, any provision of these Terms which are or become unenforceable shall not invalidate any other provisions of these Terms. These Terms apply to all persons who attend a Venue and/or an Event.

Tickets are non-refundable, non-exchangeable and will become void if transferred for financial gain other than via the Official Ticketing Partner.

No refunds will be given on tickets except as required by law and/or as required by the Live Performance Australia Ticketing Code of Practice. Incorrect purchases DO NOT qualify for a refund or exchange.

The Organiser is not liable for any loss, injury, damage or compensation (including, without limitation, any travel costs, accommodation costs, or out of pocket expenses), as a result of the Event being cancelled, postponed, relocated or changed for whatever reason. If the Event is cancelled in whole or in part by an act of God, extreme weather, act of war, act of terrorism, civil commotion, industrial dispute, communicable disease or for any event or threat outside of the control of the Organiser then any refunds shall be at the Organiser’s absolute discretion (unless otherwise required by law).

The sale or re-sale of a Ticket by the Ticket Holder (including online auction sites) by any method other than the official resale managed by the Official Ticketing Partner is prohibited.

Only Tickets purchased from the Official Ticketing Partner will be honoured. Do not purchase your Ticket from any third-party unauthorised websites including but limited to Viagogo, Gumtree and Facebook.

Failure to purchase a Ticket through the Official Ticketing Partner may result in refusal of entry.

Name changes can be facilitated through the Official Ticketing Partner. Tickets can be resold via the Official Ticketing Partner - Ticketmaster (Perth and Gold Coast), Ticketek (Newcastle) or via Tixel.

Tickets may not be resold or used for advertising, promotion or other commercial purposes (including competitions and trade promotions) or to enhance the demand for other goods or services unless this has been approved in writing by the Promoter. If a Ticket is sold or used in breach of this term, the bearer of the Ticket will be refused admission to the Venue and the Event and the Promoter reserves the right to take further legal action.

The Official Ticketing Partners are Ticketmaster Australasia Pty Ltd (ABN 49 089 258 837) and Ticketek Pty Ltd (ABN 92 101 129 110).

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT COMMUNICABLE DISEASE

To deal with the public health risk of communicable disease and its possible consequences, Federal, State and Territory Governments, or other bodies with relevant authority, may make orders and directives which may affect the operation of the Events. New orders and directives may be made, or existing orders or directives may be modified following the date on which you purchase your Ticket. All such orders and directives (whether in existence now or in the future) form part of these Terms to the extent applicable.

The Events will be conducted in accordance with all applicable orders and directives. You may be contacted closer to an Event with further details of any obligations under such Public Health Orders that will apply to you. By purchasing a Ticket, you agree to comply with applicable orders and directions in place at the time of the show and any other terms and conditions relating to communicable disease notified to you by us.

You acknowledge that we may be required to cancel an Event in compliance with such orders and directives and such cancellation will be beyond the control of the Promoter.

WAIVERS AND RELEASES

The Promoter is the provider of recreational services and/or recreational activities as defined under the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth), Civil Liability Act 2002 (NSW), and Civil Liability Act 2002 (WA), and other applicable legislation.

If you choose to attend an Event you do so at your own risk and, to the extent permitted by law, you release and indemnify the Promoter, the Official Ticketing Partner, and the managers of each Venue (and their officers, employees, agents and contractors) from and against any claim or liability of any nature in relation to injury or death, from you or any third party which might arise from entry to, or the use of, the Venues by you and any accompanying persons regardless of how the damage, injury or death is sustained or caused.

You acknowledge and agree that the Promoter has rights of occupation and control over all areas used in relation to the Events under an agreement with the relevant Venue manager (each a "Permit"), and that the Permit renders the Promoter, among other things, responsible for the safe operation and maintenance of the Venues, the conduct of people in the Venues and the Events that take place on the Venues. You must not do anything that would result in the Promoter being in default under a Permit, and you acknowledge that a breach by you of these Terms will likely have the effect of causing the Promoter to be in default under the Permit.

The Ticket Holder assumes all risk associated with or incidental to attendance at an Event (which also includes assuming the risk of participation in any Event activities such as sponsor activations). To the extent permitted by law, the Ticket Holder waives all rights, claims and actions which the Ticket Holder has now or could have in the future against the Promoter, the Official Ticketing Partner, the Venue manager, and their directors, officers, employees, agents, contractors and any other person or party involved in any way with the Events (the "Released Parties") in respect of any personal injury, death (including wrongful death), property damage or loss of any nature whatsoever sustained by the Ticket Holder as a result of the Ticket Holder being transported to or from the Venues or attendance at the Events and/or the Venues with the exception of any gross negligence of the Released Parties. The Ticket Holder indemnifies and keeps indemnified the Released Parties in respect of any liability any of the Released Parties may have (whether under tort, statute, contract, negligence, equity or otherwise) to any third party for any personal injury, death (including wrongful death), property damage or loss of whatever nature, which arises from or out of the Ticket Holder's attendance at the Events and/or the Venues or the Ticket Holder's involvement or participation in any Event activities.

You acknowledge that you bring any property into the Venues at your own risk and release the Promoter, the Official Ticketing Partner, and the Venue manager (and their officers, employees, agents and contractors) from and against any claim or liability in relation to loss of or damage to such property even where such loss or damage is caused by the negligence, default or breach of contract of the Promoter, the Official Ticketing Partner, or the Venue manager (or their officers, employees, agents and contractors).

Except where liability cannot be excluded by law, the Promoter, the Official Ticketing Partner, the Venue managers (and their employees, contractors and agents) will not be liable for any loss, cost, expense, injury, claim or damages suffered or sustained by any Ticket Holders at a Venue or an Event. Where permitted under the Australian Consumer Law ("ACL"), the Promoter limits its liability in respect of breach of any statutory guarantee under the ACL in the manner set out in sections 64A(1)(a) and 64A(2)(a) of the ACL.

Subject to the foregoing paragraphs, to the maximum extent permitted by law, Ticket Holders waive all legal rights of action against and fully release the Promoter, the Official Ticketing Partner, the Venue managers, and their agents, employees and volunteers for all claims for compensation for loss, damage, injury or death howsoever arising out of or in relation to the Ticket Holder's entry to and presence at the Venues and their attendance at the Events.

CONSENT TO MEDICAL TREATMENT

The Promoter will ensure that reasonable numbers of properly qualified medical and health professionals are in attendance at each Event.

Each Ticket Holder agrees that in the event of injury or illness of a Ticket Holder, the Promoter may, at the cost of the Ticket Holder, arrange medical treatment and/or emergency evacuation as deemed necessary for the safety of the Ticket Holder. Each Ticket Holder releases the Promoter from liability in connection with the provision of such medical treatment and/or evacuation to the fullest extent possible at law.

The Promoter will hold your information as permitted by the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and will deal with your information in accordance with the Promoter's Privacy Policy.

- (q) the Promoter will not take responsibility or liability for cloaked items, if the facility is provided, you bring to a Venue; and
- (r) Strobe lighting effects will be used as part of the festival's production.

Each Ticket Holder acknowledges that there may be restricted capacities at some of the Event's stages or venues, and Ticket purchase does not guarantee entry to these areas in such circumstances. Once it is determined by the Promoter (at its sole discretion) that the maximum capacity has been reached in these areas, there will be no further admissions.

To keep the Spilt Milk House Party Tour clean and green, the Promoters encourage all Ticket Holders to utilise the recycling and refuse facilities provided throughout the site.

Please arrive and depart in an orderly fashion and respect our neighbours, so we can return next year.

Ticket Holders are required to follow the reasonable directions of the Promoter and the Event Staff at all times.
